What we do

How does FNB BANK, INC. protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

We restrict access to non-public personal information about you only to those employees who need it in order to provide our services to you.

How does FNB BANK, INC. collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- apply for a loan or deposit money
- open an account or pay your bills
- use your credit or debit card

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for non-affiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.
